

Experience

2008–PRESENT

Freelance Interactive Visual Designer San Francisco/Los Angeles/New York City/Connecticut

For over 10 years I've lead the design of experiences for web and mobile devices. I have a real passion for creating highly polished interactive solutions that solve problems in elegant ways. In these roles I designed production-ready visual designs, prototypes and wireframes as well as a collaborated with IA/UX and engineering teams. Additionally, I've directed designers and lead client workshops & presentations.
